

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

62,33

22

Louisiana Native Iris
 Iris Acre
 220 Sunset Blvd.
 Baton Rouge, La.
 -1949-

Price per Single Rhizome

1. CRUSHED GRAPE. (Natural hybrid) - - - - - $5.00
 Medium tall, large blooms of broad, flaring slightly drooped petals and sepals of crepe-like texture. Color 46-K-7, or color of juice from fresh Concord Grape. Many blossoms per stem.
2. KRAMER TAN. (Natural hybrid) (Kramer) - - - - - 4.00
 Erect G. C. form. Tall, early to mid-season. Sepals spoon shaped and recurved. Color 12-B-3, or pearl grey on top and yellow underneath.
3. ANGEL WING. (Viosca) - - - - - 3.00
 Tall, white, G. C. form. Multiplies rapidly.
4. ABBEVILLE GARNET. (Nelson) (B-2-14) (Natural hybrid) - - - - 5.00
 Medium tall. Mid-season. Large bloom of crepe-like texture. (Excellent for hybridizing).
5. HAILE SELASSIE. (MacMillan) (Natural hybrid) - - - - - 5.00
 Medium tall, Mid-season. Many blooms of large, deep velvety purple, long orange-yellow signal. (Excellent for hybridizing)
6. PEGGY MAC. (MacMillan) - - - - - 5.00
 Medium mid-season, horizontal blooms of rose violet coloring, large signal. (Excellent for hybridizing).
7. BAYOU SUNSET. (MacMillan) - Seedling - - - - - 10.00
 Medium tall. Mid-season, large blooms of rose gold coloring, with huge brilliant radial signal. (State prize winner, 1943.) Limited supply.
8. CHACAHOU LA PINK. (Richard) - Natural hybrid - - - - - 3.00
 Early, tall, floriferous rose pink.
9. BAYOU L'OURSE PINK. (Richard) - Natural hybrid - - - - - 3.00
 Early, medium tall, floriferous orchid pink.
10. FOURCIANA. (Dr. Small) - Natural hybrid - - - - - 2.00
 Early, G. C. type, tall, blooms of violet red coloring.
11. LITTLE CAILLOU PURPLE. (Richard) Natural hybrid. - - - - - 2.00
 Early, tall, G. C. type.
12. LILAC TIME. (Bruce) - Natural hybrid. - - - - - 5.00
 Medium, early, huge flaring petals and sepals, G. C. type. Lavender with deeper veining.
13. IMPERALIS. (Dr. Small) - - - - - 2.00
 Early, tall, floriferous, blue purple.

14. VIRGINICA - CAROLINA (Collected in South Carolina) - - - 2.00
Late, medium, vigorous, deep blue, heavily veined.
15. ASSORTED VIRGINICAS. (3 types.) - - - - - 3.00 for 3
In shades of blue. plants
16. LOCKETTS LUCK. (1948 prize winner, La. Iris Society) Natural hybrid - 10.00
Early, tall, large flowered-flaring form of flesh to mauve pink with huge yellow signal. (Limited supply)
17. HAZELS SKY FLECK. - - - - - 7.50
A natural sport from G. C., tall, blooms white with sepal edges flecked in blue. A plicata which is very rare in Louisiana Iris.
18. ALL FALLS. (Richard) - Natural hybrid - - - - - 10.00
A dwarf double. Collected in Foliosa field. Late, many blooms per stalk. Both petals and sepals have signal markings. Color 42-J-11, near Clematis blue. Green-gold crest, surrounded by white radiation. (Limited supply).
19. ROSE VIOLET. (MacMillan) - - - - - 3.00
Early, tall, G. C. type, rose violet coloring.
20. ABBEVILLE REDS. - - - - - 1.00
Assorted types in varying shades of red, large blooms.
21. FOLIOSAS. (Dwarfs) - - - - - 1.00
Assorted types in varying shades of blue and purple.
22. FOLIOSA. (White dwarfs) - - - - - 3.00
23. RIPPLE BLUE. (Nelson) B-6-1 - - - - - 3.00
Dwarf, mid-season to late. Foliosa type, blue white or ice blue. 33-A-5.
24. GAY BLADE. (Richard) Natural hybrid. Semi-dwarf foliosa type - 3.00
Low, mid-season. Many flowers of blue violet. 54-A-12 coloring, with silky fuzz on a long narrow golden crest.
25. ABBEVILLE YELLOW. - Collected - - - - - 3.00
Medium tall, mid-season, blooms of crepe-like texture of varying shades of yellow.
26. LAFOURCHE ROYAL. - - - - - 2.00
Tall, mid-season, floriferous, large blooms, G. C. type near Royal purple, 43-J-11.

Terms and Conditions

1. Cash with order.
2. We pay postage on orders amounting to $5.00. For less amount; add 35 cents for postage and packing.
3. Orders accepted subject to supply.
4. Color reference Maerz and Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe G. Richard
Iris Acre
220 Sunset Boulevard
Baton Rouge, Louisiana